

The Wedding Ring Shop makes $5,000 donation to Japan Earthquake Relief

Most know The Wedding Ring Shop as a high-end jewelry company in Honolulu that deals in exclusive and designer jewelry items. Through the years, President Mike Han and his staff have made frequent donations to community fundraising events, to include the Japan-America Society of Hawaii, to support great charitable causes in Hawaii. July 28th was a special day when Mike and his staff presented a donation to JASH President Ed Hawkins to support disaster victims in Japan resulting from the tragic March 11 earthquake in tsunami.

At its quarterly team-building event, Mike asked Ed Hawkins to stop by and talk about the work that's being done by JASH and other organizations in Hawaii to provide support to Japanese disaster victims. While Ed talked about the fundraising effort that's raised over $6 million from the people of Hawaii to benefit disaster victims and a new initiative JASH started with local partners Hawaii Office of JAL, First Hawaiian Bank, and Studio Rim Pacific to bring brings kids from the affected regions to Hawaii, Mike surprised his staff by pulling out a check for $5,000 to support this new initiative. Thank you Mike and the staff of The Wedding Ring Shop for your donation and your support of the Japanese disaster victims!
